Dear Van:

Your pipe has received notoriety in the "Washington Post" and I send you a clipping as evidence.

If you ever come to Washington, let me know as there are many things I would like to talk over with you. Our problems do not diminish either in number or gravity, but at least that keeps me occupied - I hope fruitfully, and there is never a dull moment.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

When that pipe wears out this time by all means let me know. I take great pride in the fact that the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency goes around smoking a pipe of my manufacture, and I just hope it helps him to cerebrate somewhat on some of the tough problems he has before him.

I do not get to Washington very much these days. In fact, I stay out of there as much as I can. However, I do come down occasionally, and I will see if you happen to be free for there are indeed a number of things we might talk about.

Cordially yours,

V. Bush

Dear Van:

I received today and am now smoking
V. B. No. 2. It is a sweet pipe like its predecessor, and is a constant reminder of you. I only wish we could get together one of these days for a good talk.

Sincerely,

Dr. Vannevar Bush
